

Tarek Robbiati

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Tarek Robbiati joined Pure Storage in 2025 as Chief Financial Officer, responsible for finance, investor relations, indirect procurement, and facilities. He brings more than 25 years of financial, transformational, and strategic leadership experience in technology and telecommunications.

Previously, Tarek was CFO of Hewlett Packard Enterprise Company (HPE), where he was responsible for increasing the company's gross margins, operating profit margin, and free cash flow. Prior to that, he served as CFO at Sprint Corporation, where he led the company's turnaround efforts.

Additionally, he held CEO roles at RingCentral and Flexigroup, the high-growth diversified Australian financial services company. His significant global experience includes serving as Group Managing Director of Telstra International Group, the international division of Australian telecommunications leader Telstra Corporation, and as CEO of Telstra's Hong Kong-based subsidiary CSL Limited. He also held leadership positions at Orange Plc, Atradius, Lehman Brothers and Andersen Consulting (now Accenture).

Tarek holds an MBA from the London Business School, a Master of Science in Business Administration from Institut d'Administration des Entreprises, and a Master of Science in Nuclear Physics and Electronics from Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Ingénieurs.

