Why Do I Need Professional Services?

Yes, Pure technology and Evergreen Storage™ are simple, cost-effective data solutions for the Modern Data Experience. And with Pure as-a-Service™, it is possible to get that experience with an easy subscription model. But no matter how simple as your storage may be with Pure, your current legacy data environment is likely to be complex.

Personalized support with Business Critical Services can cut through that complexity with designated teams and AI to identify problems before they occur. Workshops and consulting from Pure Professional Services can help you evaluate your environment and create plans to upgrade data storage, data protection and multi-cloud strategies. We use proven methodologies and tools to move you to the simplicity of Pure easily and efficiently. Pure Professional Services helps you unravel complexity, avoid costs, and achieve the benefits that Pure Storage offers.

Build New Capabilities

Pure Professional Services can help your IT teams build new capabilities. We offer a series of fixed-scope, multi-day workshops designed to deliver tangible results in a variety of important IT and storage system areas. Our services lab can deliver demonstrations and proof-of-concept projects to build confidence in your strategic plans. We are also able to integrate storage with important data applications. We can deliver:

- Workshops covering assessment and optimization, multicloud strategy, data protection, and operational readiness
- Data migration demonstrations with a variety of products, environments, and tools in our services lab
- Proof-of-concept projects with your data in your IT environment
- Integration with data applications including AWS, AWS Outpost, Oracle, SQL, SAP/HANA, Splunk and others

Connect with Our Partners
